DUTIES:

We wish to stress the self-help nature of this Club. There are no paid staff; full and family members will be asked to undertake Club duties; such as race officer etc., where requested training will be provided. It is important that members carry out duties as requested by the committee.

GENERAL DECLARATION

So far as it applies to me and members of the family I declare that

All craft owned and used by my family or me and not owned by the Club, which are parked, used, sailed at the Club has a valid certificate of insurance that provides cover against third party liability providing a minimum of £2,000,000 and buoyancy complies with the boat class standards.

I am aware of my responsibility to ensure that any craft borrowed by me and sailed at the Club provides me with adequate insurance.

I will comply with the Club rules and bylaws including any lawful changes made from time to time. I have noted the Club's liability in respect to members' safety.

I understand that the Club is only able to provide safety facilities during the hours of a Club race. Outside these hours no safety cover is provided and members sailing alone are advised to have a shore-based observer equipped with a mobile phone.

HEALTH DECLARATION

"I confirm that I/we are fit to sail and if I/we have any medical condition that the Club should be aware of, I/we list it below."

Important Additional Information

- * New members are advised that the Club has limited space for dinghies. Dinghy park spaces are allocated on a year on year basis to members on a first served basis. Acceptance of membership does not guarantee these facilities immediately on joining.
- * Cadet members should usually have a parent(s) who is a member(s), in exceptional circumstances they may be sponsored by another adult member to provide supervision and guidance within the Club.
- * All annual subscriptions are due for renewal on the 10th April.
- * The Club is fully committed to safeguarding the well-being of all its members. All Club members should, at all times, show respect and understanding for their rights, safety and welfare, and conduct themselves in a way that reflects the principles contained within both the RYA Safe-guarding & Child Protection Guidelines and the RYA Safeguarding Vulnerable Adults Guidelines.

These guidelines have been adopted by the Club and will be issued to all members on application. Full guidance / procedures are displayed in the Club premises. For further information contact the Club's Safeguarding & Welfare Officer

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

- * The information you provide in this membership form will be used solely for dealing with you as a member of Welland Yacht Club.
- * The Club has a Data Privacy Policy which is displayed at Welland Yacht Club. Your data will be stored and used in accordance with this Policy.
- * The Policy describes that certain personal data (name, address, contact number, email address, boat name and type etc.) is processed (i.e. held and ordered etc.) to enable the Club to perform its contracts with members concerning membership, accounts, Dinghy park spaces etc. This data is also held for the legitimate interests of Welland Yacht Club in operating the Club.
- * The minimum contact details (i.e. comprising only a person's name, agreed contact telephone number and agreed contact email address) of Flag Officers, Committee Members, other officials (e.g. Race officer and Bar Volunteers) is published within the "Contact list" and/or Duty Roster (including electronic versions such as "Dutyman") and in the legitimate interests of Welland Yacht Club in operating the Club.
- * Welland Yacht Club may arrange for photographs or videos to be taken of Club activities and published on the Welland Yacht Club website or social media channels to promote the Club. If you consent to your image/s being used by the Club in this way, please tick here.
- * Welland yacht Club will email you to communicate important information concerning the operating of the Club. It may also email you to inform you of Club events. If you consent to being informed of Club events by email, then please tick here.

If at any time you wish to withdraw your consent for any of the above, please e-mail secretary@wellandyachtclub.co.uk
